Incidents of Terrorist/Naxal Activities

1607. SHRIMATI SUSHMA SWARAJ: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the incidents involving terrorist activities, naxalite and extremist activities in the country since May, 2004;

(b) the number of civilians, para-military personnel, terrorists and extremists killed in such activities; and

(c) the steps taken to control such incidents?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) and (b) The details of incidents of terrorist related violence in J & K, North Eastern region and naxal affected areas during the period from May 1, 2004 to January 31, 2005 are as under.

Incidents	Civilians Killed	Security Forces Killed	Extremists killed
3633	1158	335	993

(c) In order to tackle the menace of terrorism/naxalism the Central Government has adopted a multi-pronged approach which includes peace talks with the extremist groups if they shun violence, strengthening of the borders, galvanizing the intelligence machinery, mounting of well coordinated intelligence based operations, modernization of State Police Forces and CPMFs and strengthening of international/bilateral cooperation.

Besides, the Government has taken steps to accelerate the socio-economic development or areas affected by terrorism/extremism.

Rehabilitation of Tsunami survivors

†1608. SHRIMATI KUM KUM RAI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the extent of loss suffered due to devastating Tsunami quake that hit Tamil Nadu, Kerala and Andhra Pradesh in the country;

(b) the details about the economic or any other type of assistance provided for relief and rehabilitation measures in those State by Central Government, national and international organizations; and

(c) the steps being taken by Government to rehabilitate persons/children who survived Tsunami?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) The details are given in the enclosed Statement (See below).

(b) and (c) The Government of India have approved a special package of Rs. 3644.05 crore named as "Rajiv Gandhi Rehabilitation Package for Tsunami affected areas" to provide assistance for immediate relief and response, revival of fishery and agriculture sectors, immediate construction of temporary (intermediate) shelters and repair/restoration of infrastructure. The package for Tamil Nadu is Rs. 2347.19 crore, Andhra Pradesh - Rs. 70.00 crore, Kerala - Rs. 249.36 crore, Pondicherry Rs 155.62 crore, Andaman & Nicobar Islands - Rs. 821.88 crore.

The Relief material in kind was also donated by a number of States as also by the private/public sectors. The individuals and NGOs have also directly provided relief material to the Tsunami affected States/UTs.

The Government of India has not accepted external assistance for immediate relief and response as the country had adequate resources of its own to deal with the Tsunami disaster.

529 children have become orphans in the Tsunami. The State Government/UT Administration and the community have decided to take care of these children themselves and most likely no adoption outside will take place.
